Prayer and Meditation

Psalm 126

When the LORD restored the fortunes of Zion,
we were like those who dream

Then our mouth was filled with laughter,
and our tongue with shouts of joy;
then it was said among the nations,
"The LORD has done great things for them."
The LORD has done great things for us,
and we rejoiced.

Restore our fortunes, O LORD,
like the watercourses in the Negeb.
May those who sow in tears
reap with shouts of joy.
Those who go out weeping,
bearing the seed for sowing,
shall come home with shouts of joy,
carrying their sheaves.

A reading from the gospel of St Luke 22: 24-30

A dispute also arose among them as to which one of them was to be regarded as the greatest. But he said to them, "The kings of the Gentiles lord it over them; and those in authority over them are called benefactors. But not so with you; rather the greatest among you must become like the youngest, and the leader like one who serves. For who is greater, the one who is at the table or the one who serves? Is it not the one at the table? But I am among you as one who serves.

"You are those who have stood by me in my trials; and I confer on you, just as my Father has conferred on me, a kingdom, so that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and you will sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

Music

This week my suggestion is the sublime Gloria Patri et Filio, by Antonio Vivaldi, sung by Sandrine Piau. It is from the Psalm Laudate Pueri.

This week's hymn is O Praise Ye the Lord. I found this on Youtube, but I cannot see who is singing – the accompanying picture shows a cathedral, so I presume it is their choir, but I can't identify the cathedral ! If anyone can shed light on this, do let me know !!
